PROFILE

A diligent, motivated individual with excellent illustration skills, who is detail-oriented and capable of working both alone and with others to create design solutions.

EXPERIENCE

Freelance Illustrator, 2016-2020

Created over ninety illustrations for self-published children's books, including the "Pals" series by Richard Reguero and "Hershey the Musical Kitty" by Janet Taormina, both of which are expecting release later this year.

Design Intern, The GRO Agency (Manhattan), June 2019

Worked over one hundred hours as a design intern at an advertising agency which specializes in package design. Participated in the creation of promotional material and package design for new retail products by The Walt Disney Company, Purina, Sunny Fruit, and others.

Graphic Designer, MasterMind Publishing, 2017-2018

Communicated with clients both over the phone and in person; Designed several logos and book cover concepts.

On-call Artist, Create-A-Mural, 2017

Commissioned by an online business to illustrate designs which would then be made into reusable vinyl wall decals for children's bedrooms.

Work Study, Atelier at Flowerfield (St. James), 2017

Assisted with setup and cleanup in a fine art studio space while attending life drawing and painting classes.

Assistant Set Designer, Hope Home Education Center, 2013-2016

Created various props and painted backdrops for various school productions.

ACTIVITIES

In the past, I have been commissioned to paint murals for various friends and family. I am also a part of several close-knit online communities which emphasize the creation and sharing of art.
